

Get To Know Erin Hall

Director of Engrained

Hometown: Lakeside, Arizona
Engrained Director since May 2011

What do you enjoy most about Engrained?

I enjoy that the food is local and fresh and anyone can feel good about eating here.

How long have you worked in the hospitality Industry?

For the past two years I have enjoyed working at the Hassayampa Residential Restaurant.

What is something that you love about your career?

Working with students and being a part of a great campus community.

Favorite food?

My favorite food is dark chocolate.

Fun Fact?

I come from a large family - six sisters, three brothers and 24 nieces and nephews and 3 great nieces and nephews...and counting!

