

Get to Know Daun York Director of Engrained

Hometown: Las Cruces, New Mexico
Engrained Director since January 2009

What do you enjoy most about Engrained?

I feel that by utilizing local food vendors that we stabilize the local economy.

How long have you worked at Arizona State University?

I have been working at ASU for 18 years, 10 years at the Tempe Campus and the last 8 years at the Polytechnic Campus.

What is something that you love about your career?

I love the hustle and bustle of ASU and all the great students I've met over the years!

Favorite food?

My favorite food is New Mexico-style Mexican food.

Fun Fact?

My daughter is named after a Neil Diamond song. Her name is Shiloh.

engrained
a taste of green